Mass for Life
This Monday
January 23rd, 6 p.m.

The U.S. Bishops have asked us to offer a Mass of Reparation & Healing for our Sins and to observe a National Day of Mourning & Penance on the sad anniversary of our nation's legalization of abortion on demand.

Our Mass will be Monday, January 23rd, at 6 p.m. (we will have no 9:30 morning Mass). We also invite any parent who wishes to honor the life of any child lost, including those miscarried or stillborn.

All are welcome to come and pray for healing!

Our Lady of the Mountains Young Adults Group

The YOUNG ADULTS GROUP will be meeting at the home of a MYSTERY HOST this Friday, January 27th at 6:30 p.m. The evening will feature a chili and toppings extravaganza. Creativity is a plus! Bring your own crockpot full of simmering hot chili or contribute a side of cornbread and toppings or side-dish and dessert. As always, the evening includes a reflection/discussion and evening prayer. The group is open to young adults, married and single, ages 21 to 35. For directions to the MYSTERY HOST'S HOUSE, you must call 770-380-1523 or email smchoirs@yahoo.com.

Welcome to our new Finance Council Chairman!

We have been blessed to have Gary Wallpe step up to be our new Finance Council Chairman after the unexpected death of Steve Perlaky. Gary is a member of our Knights of Columbus and he and his wife, Theresa, are very active members of our church. Thank you so much, Gary, for taking on this position!

Driver Safety Course Offered

Our Lady of the Mountains will be hosting the "Smart Driver" course, a state-approved driver safety course on Tuesday, January 31st from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. This classroom course qualifies participants for a three-year state-mandated discount on their auto insurance (a few exceptions may apply). The cost is $20 per person (possibly $15 for some) and includes a workbook. Registration is required and class space is limited. For information or to register, call Paul Galanek, Instructor, 770-591-9347.

Candlemas

We will offer a special Mass at 6 p.m. Thursday, February 2nd, for the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. We will have the traditional blessing and lighting of candles in Fr. Denis Hall followed by the procession up the stairs to the church for Mass. Any family wishing to have their own candles blessed may bring a basket or bundle from home.

Please note, we will not have our normal Thursday morning Mass.
