

Fr. Brian Baker

We're excited to welcome Fr. Brian Baker who will be our Retreat Master for our upcoming 40 Hours. Fr. Baker tells us "I have a Yankee Father and a Korean Mother; I was born and raised in the South and came of age in Italy." Before going to seminary Fr. Baker studied Biology, pre-medicine and then moved from Virginia to Atlanta in 2002. He was in a Blues band for a year, tried out for American Idol, and worked in various job fields, including inside corporate sales and marketing and small retail management. Having temporarily fallen away from the practice of the faith, he returned to the Church in 2004, and got involved with various ministries at Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church.

In 2007 he began studying for the priesthood at Mount St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland. After philosophy, he was sent to Rome for theological studies, receiving his Bachelors in Sacred Theology from the Pontifical Gregorian University in 2012. He finished a License in Sacred Theology at the Gregorian in 2015 (focusing on Dogmatic Theology). He returned to Atlanta where he served as a Parochial Vicar at Holy Spirit Catholic Church. Presently he gives retreats and talks around the diocese. It will be great to have him at OLM!
