

Our parishioner, Andrew Francisco Lane, was ordained to the diaconate this past weekend, Saturday, May 8th, in Philadelphia. Andrew is studying for the priesthood at St. Charles Seminary, where he is preparing to serve in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Andrew also plans to serve in the Archdiocese of the Military, once he is ordained a priest. This newly ordained deacon will preach for us on Pentecost. Congratulations to Deacon Andrew Lane, on this happy day. We are so very proud of you.
