Pastor's Corner

Lent begins with Ash Wednesday and this year, we are privileged to have Bishop Benard "Ned" Shlesinger celebrate the 7:00 PM Mass for us (there is another Mass at 9:30 am on the same day). He will also help us enter the Lenten journey with the focus on the Eucharist by way of the traditional and common lenten practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. In addition to whatever practices you plan for yourself or for your family, I invite you to take advantage of the many different opportunities to celebrate Lent together with your parish community. Please refer to the insert, which will also be posted online on our website and facebook page for more details.

This weekend is also the time for us to make a commitment to support our Diocesan Church through the Archbishop's Annual Appeal. You can pick up the materials to learn more about the programs being funded by this appeal, I only want to highlight a couple that are directly related to us. Seminarian and Deacon formation: we want to invest in the education and training of our future Priests and Deacons. Continuing education for Bishops, Priests and Deacons: new ministerial needs demand new competency to respond. "Walking with Moms In Need": as the name suggests, we try to assist the mothers who are facing difficulties in raising their families. I see this is so beneficial to our effort to revive the Respect Life Ministry in our parish.

THE CARMELITE ORDER

The Carmelite Order is the oldest order of the Church beginning with the gathering of the first hermits on Mount Carmel just south of the port of Haifa overlooking the Mediterranean Sea sometime after the end of the 12th century. Between 1206 and 1214, they asked Albert, Patriarch of Jerusalem, for a Rule of Life which in later years became the Carmelite Rule. Mount Carmel was chosen as the founding site because of its association with the Prophet Elijah and his spring. A chapel dedicated to the Virgin Mary was built in the midst of the hermits' cell where they gathered for Mass and they became known as the Brothers of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel. When the hermits were forced off Mount Carmel by the Saracens, this title was shorted to Carmelites. Both Mary and Elijah are considered patrons of the Order since there is no one person considered as founder. The Carmelite charism revolves around contemplative prayer seeking to achieve mystical union with Christ as exemplified by Saint Teresa of Avila and Saint John of the Cross. The three pillars of Carmelites are prayer, community, and service. Through these Carmelites fulfill their baptismal promises and seek expression of the two great commandments of love given to us by Christ, love of God and love of neighbor. The first order of Carmelites are the hermits and friars, the second order are the nuns, and the third order are the laity. Included in the ranks of Carmelites are Saint Therese of Lisieux, Saint Edith Stine and Saint Titus Brandsma. The majority of the North America is the Province of the Most Pure Heart of Mary and its sister province is the Province of St. Elias in the northeast. For more information, contact Deacon Jim Gibson, deaconjim2.0@gmail.com.
